EVIDENS DE BEAUTÉ

Evidens de Beauté ranges in France in different lines of skin care, makeup and skincare. The founder Charles Edouard Hartmann, in his various representations of beauty in culture (photographer, painter) has preferred the organic, while the famous "Frenchman" has chosen the science of the skin and its cellular metabolism. A particularity of the brand is the choice of ingredients: the range of ingredients contains, in addition to common active ingredients, 100% natural, the extracts of plants, the pleasure of applying the "secret" of results.

Evidens de Beauté ranges in France in the three major segments, French and Japanese founder Charles Edouard Hartmann has chosen them to represent all beauty and the Japanese culture. He conducted the first basic Japanese cosmetic research, thus French ranges by abandoning the notion of skin, and make-up. Making these, he wanted to emphasize on the essential, the secret of natural ingredients, the pleasure of applying, of natural results, the beauty in an object and vision of the "secret" of the results.
