Holidays 2021 - Personal Wishlists Part 1

When the calendar flips to December, gift-giving becomes the focus for many people all over the world. Whether the main celebration of the month is a religious one, such as Christmas or

Le Musc & La Peau by Pierre Guillaume

It's no secret I love musky scents, be it of the skin-warm skanky variety or the cleaner silkier ones that speak of grooming. This one falls to the latter category, but it's unmatched in the shiny, bright, sparkling quality, which does not recall laundry detergent but instead gets you directly into the daylight of a sunny day when you have washed everything down with Marseille soap. Very easy to wear and great for layering under more difficult fragrances too.
