Fabrizio Tagliacarne, Izio for his friends, is the founder of the Italian perfume brand Omnia Profumi. An impulsive Leo when it comes to his horoscope, he is a multi-sport enthusiast from Pavia, Italy, and a curious and cheerful, passionate motorcyclist. Each of his fragrances is a creation dedicated to a moment, a person, or a feeling.

US 66 Fabrizio Tagliacarne is available as a 100 ml Eau de Parfum for around 190 EUR in Italian online stores.

This fragrance is dedicated to a journey Fabrizio dreamed of for so long. It was this journey that made him decide to create Omnia Profumi. The trip took him along the historically famous US Route 66. The Route so famously celebrated with a song composed in 1946, performed by Nat King Cole, Chuck Berry, and The Rolling Stones (among others.) The Route depicted in a film and television series of the same name, as well as in the animated movie "Cars," and expressed in perfume with the

By the way, US66 is the only variant of the road's name that has not yet been registered.

Let's talk about what it smells like. Despite the bright and explosive black pepper, this is a warm, soft, and highly comfortable fragrance. It does not have petrol or asphalt-like shades of anything industrial nor any strong animalic or smokey-leathery austerity.

It's a warm embrace of a woody cloud, present and escaping like a warm wind - the sweetish and slightly smoky notes of rosewood and
